Now, we happen to know that Mr. Severance does not collate any Hawalian news for the San Francisco papers, (nor does any one here so far as we are aware), and in fact does not take the Advertiser at all, as we are informed, and consequently does not read it except informed, and consequently does not read it except he happens to see a copy somewhere about the very lew offices in Sat Francisco where it is deemed worth while to take it. Both the Alle and Balletin are in regular receipt of the Gazarra (and perhaps of the Adleration), and they take their news items from the paper which they deem to give the best informed as to occurrences here.

THE COCOS ISLAND TREASURE. - About two years ago a vessel belonging to Honolulu was chartered at Panama to convey a party to Cocos Island, to hunt up or dig up the immense amount of treasure which is supposed to have been hidden upon that Island. The party did some tall digging in various localities, but were forced to leave, we suppose, just before the treasure was found on account of having run out of provisions. Heaps of gold would have done them no good if they had been obliged to starve upon it.

Recently, another expedition has been fitted out for the same purpose, which upon the start seemed to possess all the elements of success. They had the only two survivors of the pirate crew living, who knew exactly the cave where It will be observed by advertisement in another the doubloons and ingots were hidden! "The production of Beet-root Sugar in the first five menths of this year, in consequence of the falling off on the part of Germany, has remained behind that of last year by 63,000 tons. Imports show for Europe and North America together an increase of 36,000 tons; for Europe alone that of 1,000 tons, whilst the stocks on 1st of January were, in Europe and North America together, 57,000 tons, and in Europe alone, 64,000 tons smaller than in 1871; so that for Europe and North America together there results a decrease of $4,000 tons, and for Europe alone that of $110,000 tons against last year; but in Europe they were 87 000 tons smaller, whilst exports show an increase of 4,000 tons over last year. Consumption during the first five months of this year in Europe and North America is less than that of the year before by 1,000 tons, in Europe alone by 27,000 tons. For the twelve months ending 31st May the total consumponly 1,000 tons.

"These statistics, as already anticipated in previous months, are again more favorable to the article, and even if the fact of a larger crop in Cuba, as well as the prospect of an important increase in the Beetroot Sugar production, should, after the recent considerable rise, naturally effect its value, the same may nevertheless be again strengthened by the heavy deficiency in the stocks combined with the mcrease in the consumption of the article, the latter being greatly
